

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS – IOMMa 2020

LINE-UP SELECTION RULES & REGULATIONS

- 1) Scènes Australes is the association designated to lead the Indian Ocean Music Market project (aka IOMMa).
Its president will be authorized to settle on any situation that is not covered by those regulations.
Registration will be held exclusively through our online application form, available at: www.iomma.net
- 2) The call for application aims exclusively at artists from the Indian Ocean area (list of eligible countries detailed in the online form).
Groups or artists that were selected and took part in the 2019 edition are not allowed to apply for 2020.
- 3) Application period will run from Monday, September 2nd, until Saturday, November 30th 2019.
- 4) Only on-line registrations are valid. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
- 5) Once applications are closed, IOMMa's jury and selection committee will review all files and carry out a representative selection of artists.
- 6) In the event of their selection for IOMMa 2020, artists may be asked exclusive rights for the performance in Reunion Island (applies for non-resident bands).
- 7) Selected artist(s) will ensure their availability to attend IOMMa from May 25th to 28th, 2020.
- 8) IOMMa will take care of the following expenses for selected artists :

Foreign Bands/Artists

- Accommodation
- Local transfers
- Per diem
- Evening meal on the day of the performance
- Passes for the duration of the event

Local Reunion island Bands/Artists

- Evening meal on the day of the performance
- Passes for the duration of the event

NB: Air travel for members of Reunionese groups living abroad will not be supported by IOMMa.

- 9) According to budget possibilities, IOMMa will provide a minimum fee or compensation to selected bands. In the same way, Scènes Australes will take in charge (partially or totally) air travel for non-resident artists.
- 10) For each selected band, IOMMa will provide a professional pass for the whole event to one (1) person accompanying the band.

Registration is free and implies full acceptance of the present Rules & Regulations.